Foreword

The stairway is fading away. We find ourselves approaching graduation and the termination of twelve years at Charles City High School. The experiences, the learning, and the friends will soon be memories, alive only on the pages of our Charles Citian.

As we, the Senior Class of 1963, take these our final steps we pause to turn and gaze once again upon our school and the county of which it is an integral part. We present Charles City County, its lovely plantations and cherished landmarks, rich in history, visited by thousands, and revered by each of us, as a background for our yearbook.

Our years at CCHS have been completed, but our lives are just commencing. We hope to ascend lofty heights using the knowledge we have gained here. We thank you Charles City High School and Charles City County. You have supplied the stairway to our goal, but the steps were ours to take.

So that her torch may never cease to burn, we pause to remember one whose life was dedicated to her students. She served Charles City High School as a teacher, coach, and friend; giving of herself unselfishly so that we might carry the lamp of knowledge one step, one generation, further.

Dear Seniors,

As your principal, I have learned from you to believe in the energy and enthusiasm of youth for such gives dynamic power to the human race. I have shared your dreams and aspirations. They have given vision to my life and work in our school. Your ideals have helped me to hold fast to the highest goals for our student body. Yes, even your mistakes have taught me a great lesson. I have come to realize that they are the furnace in which your gold has been refined. Without the discipline of your mistakes, your youth might have lost its balance. For all this, and much more, you have earned my profound gratitude.

As you leave us for a wider life, you will not find your tasks easier. You will learn to welcome the judgment and experiences of a growing maturity in meeting this challenge. However, come what may, never lose the quality of your young hearts. Remain undaunted by the terrific demands of our troubled times. Always accept them with the determination and vision which have been characteristic of your youth among us.

Sincerely,

Edward W. Eanes

Presenting The Class of 1963

Can You Imagine

Sammy as an English Professor?

Win as an Old Maid?

Douglas giving out hundred dollar bills?

Bill as a Judge?

James not going to Toano every week?

Mary Ellen as a Witch Doctor?

Lynwood as a Preacher?

Joy as president of the C.A. (Chickens Anonymous)?

Billy for ever being quiet?

Class History

Standing on the final steps before graduation we are able, in retrospect, to reflect on 1958 when we began our years of "hard labor". Although not yet actually high school students we became engrossed with the enthusiasm and excitement which vibrated throughout those unfamiliar but long awaited halls. We did not feel left out completely because of the opportunity afforded us to participate in some of the activities and to compete for positions on the varsity teams. It was for one of the few who made varsity, Sammy Adams, that we found it necessary to cut short our visit to Jamestown and the picnic which followed at Yorktown. We were as glad to see the end of that freezing trip, as June and promotions.

Our ninth grade year in Mrs. Mountcastle's room brought many changes including the divided schedule which prevented many of us from participating in sports. However, Patsy and Win were chosen as cheerleaders, and Sammy continued as our diminutive, star second baseman. Spring brought an exciting class trip with the Sophomores and Juniors to -- Mount Sterling. The remainder of the day was spent skiing and swimming on the Chickahominy.

Being Sophomores with a new homeroom and teacher, Miss Bingham, we were no longer awed by the high school halls. Money proved to be our greatest concern in 1960 and 1961. Realizing that soon we would be Seniors with bills to pay, we sold pennants and a "portion" of a shipment of candy. The girls, however, believed the biggest addition to our class was not money, but Billy and Charles Johnson. With the ordering of our class rings and a trip to Buckroe we said good-by to our title of Sophomores.

Becoming "Juniors" always appeared to be a great step until the realization when there, that the "Seniors" occupied the highest rung. Receiving our rings we wore them with pride, but soon we were aware that we must live up to Mrs. Richardson's expectations as "her Juniors and Seniors." Giving our first dance and assisting in serving the Corn Club Supper not only increased our "wisdom" but our treasury. Feeling confident of raising great "wealth", we began plans for the 1963 CHARLES CITIAN and being Seniors.

At last---Fall of 1962---We are Seniors!! This has been a wonderful year. But we found that with the privilege of becoming "sophisticated" Seniors came added responsibilities. The annual, our biggest problem, was completed in February, allowing us time to serve a supper and recover from class meetings and a Variety Show. May Day approached with Win as Queen, Bill as her escort, with Mary Ellen and Joy, her Maids of Honor. The Senior trip completed we will return to Charles City, but for the last time, for in June the final rung of our ladder will be reached leaving us at the foot of a new one.

Good-by CCHS! There will never be another class of '63, but each of us will always remember our high school days.

We, the Senior Class of 1963, being in possession of reasonably sound minds and bodies; unusual amounts of energy; insufficient amounts of Dignity; and realizing that our days as high school students are numbered; Do hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To our parents, friends, and teachers we hereby bequeath our humble thanks and appreciation for providing us with a foundation of education.

ARTICLE II

To our school, we leave our best wishes for the future as it carries on the task of starting boys and girls along the road of life. May they store-up as many happy memories of high school as we have.

ARTICLE III

To Mr. Eanes, we will and bequeath a year without any disciplinary problems.

To Mrs. Richardson, we will and bequeath a history class without a "Harwood."

To Mr. Fraser, we will and bequeath our most humble thanks for helping us so much with the annual and giving us that little push we needed.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors, we will and bequeath the questionable privilege of being reprimanded by Mrs. Richardson for not acting with the dignity of seniors.

ARTICLE V

I, Sammy Adams, will and bequeath my parking place to Buster Bergdoll.

I, Win Berry, will and bequeath my ciphon hose and the gas which I extracted from the bus to Johnny Major.

I, Douglas Harwood, will and bequeath my copy of THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV to anyone who has been so misled as to believe they might want to read it.

I, Bill Johnson, will and bequeath my study habits to Charles Yates.

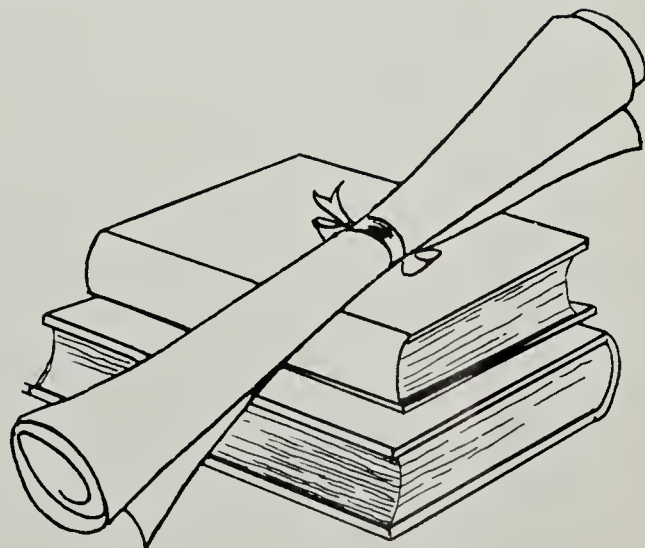

I, James Marable, will and bequeath my ability to find a short cut to anywhere to Henry Haupt.

I, Mary Ellen Means, will and bequeath my ability to keep "perfect" score to Edna Gunderson.

I, Lynwood Minter, will and bequeath my seat in the office to Raymond Daniel.

I, Joy Nantz, will and bequeath my ability to get along with everyone to Joan Avery.

I, Billy Pomfrey, will and bequeath my ability to drive a school bus to Jimmy Johnson.

Girls and Boys State

Bill Johnson and Joy Nantz were selected by the faculty last spring to attend Boys and Girls State. These delegates, as others from Virginia, were selected on the basis of leadership, character, courage, honesty, scholarship, co-operativeness and physical fitness. At VPI, the site of Boys State and at Radford College, the site of Girls State, each learned the fundamentals of Virginia government and the responsibilities of being a citizen.

S. C. A.

The Student Cooperative Association is composed of all the students attending Charles City High School. Funds for the S.C.A. are raised by the annual magazine campaign. Through its assembly programs, campaigns, and projects this organization works to improve relations between the students, faculty, and parents. Its general aim is to improve the school and to work for the student body.

The Student Council is the representative body of the S.C.A. It consists of a representative from each of the high school classes, boys' athletics, girls' athletics, and the officers of the S.C.A.
